

SCHEME OF EXAMINATION

University shall conduct examination at the end of three academic years for M.D, and at the end of two academic years for diploma courses.

M.D. examination shall consist of thesis, theory papers and clinical/practical and oral examination.

Postgraduate diploma examination shall consist of theory, practical/clinical and oral examination.

Passing head and standard of Passing:

There will be two heads of passing: -

- (i) Four/Three papers of theory shall form one head of passing
- (ii) Clinical, oral, and practical taken together shall form the second head of passing.

A candidate must pass in both the heads that is the whole examination at one and the same attempt. A candidate passing in one head and failing to pass in the other head will be declared fail and shall not be entitled to any exemption in the subsequent attempt.

To pass a candidate must obtain:

- (i) Fifty percent of the total marks in theory examination and
- (ii) Fifty percent of the total marks in clinical, oral and practical taken together.

In any of the papers in theory he must not obtain less than 40% marks to be declared pass. (Total of all the three/four papers however must be 50% of the total marks of theory).

SCHEME OF THEORY EXAMINATION:

1. There shall be four theory papers at M.D./M.S. examinations, of 100 marks each.
2. There shall be four theory papers at M.Ch./D.M. examinations, of 100 marks each.
3. There shall be three theory papers in Diploma examinations, of 100 marks each.
4. There shall be four theory papers at M.Sc. examination of 100 marks each.

Each Paper shall be of 3 hours duration.